Select Definitions
Hawaii Revised Statutes, Chapter 342G

"Deposit beverage" means beer, ale, or other drink produced by fermenting malt, mixed spirits, mixed wine, tea and coffee drinks regardless of dairy-derived product content, soda, or noncarbonated water, and all nonalcoholic drinks in liquid form and intended for internal human consumption that is contained in a deposit beverage container.

The term "deposit beverage" excludes the following:

(1) A liquid which is:

- (A) A syrup;
 - (B) In a concentrated form: or
 - (C) Typically added as a minor flavoring ingredient in food or drink, such as extracts, cooking additives, sauces, or condiments;
- (2) A liquid which is a drug, medical food or infant formula as defined by the Federal Food Drug and Cosmetic Act (21 U.S.C Sec. 301 et seq.);
- (3) A liquid which is designed and consumed only as a dietary supplement and not as a beverage as defined in the Dietary Supplement Health and Education Act of 1994 (P.L. 103-417);
- (4) Products frozen at the time of sale to the consumer, or, in the case of institutional users such as hospitals and nursing homes, at the time of sale to the users;
- (5) Products designed to be consumed in a frozen state;
- (6) Instant drink powders;
- (7) Seafood, meat, or vegetable broths, or soups, but not juices; and
- (8) Milk and all other dairy-derived products, except tea and coffee drinks with trace amounts of these products.

"Deposit beverage container" means the individual, separate, sealed glass, polyethylene terephthalate, high density polyethylene, or metal container less than or equal to sixty-eight fluid ounces, used for containing, at the time of sale to the consumer, a deposit beverage intended for use or consumption in this State.

"Deposit beverage distributor" means a person who is a manufacturer of beverages in deposit beverage containers in this State, or who imports and engages in the sale of filled deposit beverage containers to a dealer or consumer. The term includes federal agencies and military distributors, but does not include airlines and shipping companies that merely transport deposit beverage containers.

"Import" means to buy, bring, or accept delivery of deposit beverage containers from an address, supplier, or any entity outside of the State.

"Importer" means any person who buys, brings, or accepts delivery of deposit beverage containers from outside the State for sale or use within the State.
